One point may, however, be remarked upon, viz the question of promotions in the High School Classes The percentage of marks viz 40 in English, and also 40 on the whole, is pitched somewhat too high, and the being making promotions is made more and more difficult The reasons for the change are however explained by the Committee Secretary

Summary of discussion —(a) The educational rules published on page 723 Part I of the Mysore Gazette dated 24th December 1908 regarding the admission and promotion of students from one class to another cause a good deal of hardship to the students The rules are too rigid and allow no discretion to the heads of institutions. So the rules may be caused to be revised by a committee of educational officers and non official gentlemen A memorial on this subject has been submitted by the Nagar Sabha to Government on 20th January 1909 praying for a modification of the rules

The Head Master of each institution and the inspecting officers should always be allowed discretion regarding the admission and promotion of students

SIR

With reference to your No 9175 / Ed,379-09-2 dated 12 April 1910 forwarding for report certain criticisms of the rules regarding admissions and promotions in Anglo-Vernacular and High Schools, I have the honor to inform you that the object of the rules regulating admissions to High Schools is to force boys to join the classes immediately after the opening of the school after the holidays There is reason to believe that some boys deliberately put off joining the class in the middle of a month with the object of saving the fees of that month If boys are permitted to join at any time during the term it is bad for the boys who join late as they are already behind the class, and it is bad for the class as the master has to waste the time of the class in trying to bring the late-comers up to the standard of their class-mates Theoretically the rules of admission are excellent, but in practice they have been found open to criticism and there is no doubt that if they are strictly carried out they must cause hardship in certain cases For example this year the High School classes opened on Tuesday January 4th, and according to the rule that admissions should be made within a week from the date of re-opening, the last day for making admissions was Monday January 10th. The results of the Lower Secondary Examination were announced in Bangalore on 3rd and 4th January, and a list of passes and failures of each school sending up pupils was despatched to the school on January 5th. It would thus be quite possible for boys attending an Anglo-Vernacular School in the town where they live to get the news of their success, select their High School and join in time. But there is not quite sufficient time allowed for a boy living in a village at some distance from the Anglo-Vernacular School he attends during term time. In view of the heavy clerical work connected with the Lower Secondary Examination I do not think it is possible to get the results published earlier, and I therefore think that the rule requires amendment to allow for such cases.

As regards the rules for promotions, the first rule has not been properly understood and has given some trouble. The rule seems to mean that class marks are to be assigned during the year in different subjects and these marks are to be taken into account along with the annual examinations in deciding the question of promotion. But most head masters do not assign such class marks during the year and yet wish to promote boys who are failed to get 35 per cent marks in English and 40 per cent on the whole in accordance with Rule III. The rules do not give any discretion to Inspecting Officers in this respect, apparently it is merely their business to see that the rules are carried out, and this leads to trouble.

Again these rules are defective in not making provision for the promotion of a pupil who for a good reason has not been able to appear for the annual examination.

Lastly Rule VI which prevents a boy staying more than two years in the same class in the same school causes great inconvenience and is of very questionable benefit either to the pupil or the school. If there are two schools of the same standard in the same town and a boy, turned out of one school is admitted to the same class in a second school, it is difficult to see what advantage is gained as a general rule. Of course there may be an exceptional case now and again where a boy's failure is due to the effects of idle companionship where he might possibly be benefited by removal to another school But even in such a case it is just as likely that his idle companions will be turned out at the same time and join the other school too, so that the whole benefit of the transfer will probably be lost In a mofussil station in which there is only one school of the standard in which the pupil has been studying the rule causes a very great hardship to parents They must either withdraw their son who has failed and keep him at home in idleness or find the ways and means to send him to another school at some distance This is a hardship in any case and the difficulty is almost insuperable in the case of female pupils and very young boys

These are the main defects in the rules which have come under my notice I recommend that Rule I for admissions to High Schools and Rule VI for promotions in Anglo-Vernacular and High Schools should be suspended at once

If Government approves of the proposals for altering the Lower Secondary Examination in my No 10109 / 726 dated 7 April 1910 I intend to propose the appointment of a committee to prepare a scheme for Leaving School Certificates in place of the Matriculation Examination The question of class marks during the term would naturally form part of the reference to the committee, and the whole question of these rules may with advantage be referred to the same committee for further report in connection with the School Leaving Certificate

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Inspector General

From M Shama Rao Esq M A

Sir

With reference to your letters No 473/Edn 379-07-4 dated 18th July 1910 and No C 153 of the 22nd October 1912 informing that the question of modifying the rules regarding admissions and promotions in Anglo-Vernacular and High Schools sanctioned in Government Notification No 5943/Edn 164 08-3 dated 22nd December 1908 may be referred to a Committee as proposed by the Inspector General and requesting that proposals for suitably modifying the rules may be submitted at an early date I have the honour to inform you that a Committee consisting of the following gentlemen was appointed to consider the question of modifying the rules -

1 Mr M Srinivasa Rao B A Inspector of Schools Mysore Circle
2 Mr B Dasappa B A do Bangalore do
3 The Rev E P Rice B A Principal London Mission High School Bangalore
4 The Rev W Perston B A Principal Wesleyan Mission High School Bangalore
5 Mr M Venkatakrishnaiya Head Master Narimallappa s High School Mysore
6 Mr V Subramanya Iyer B A Head Master High School Bangalore
7 Mr K A Krishnaswamy Iyer B A do do Kolar
8 Mr C Krishna Rao B A Secretary Education Committee Economic Conference Bangalore

In place of the Rev E P Rice who pleaded inability to attend the meeting Mr K Ramachandra Rao, B A , Head Master of the London Mission High School was present

2 The Committee met at 3 P M on Saturday the 23rd November last in the office of the Inspector General of Education and discussed the rules at great length A copy of the Report of the Committee on the question is herein enclosed

3. As regards the time of one week allowed in Rule I for admissions to High School classes from the date of the reopening of the High School there has been much complaint of the time allowed being too short especially in the case of mofussil students who live outside the Taluk stations and who naturally take some time to know the results of the Lower Secondary and the class examinations in High Schools The Committee suggest that the time allowed may be extended to ten days

4. As regards Rule III for promotions in Anglo-Vernacular and High School classes the percentage of marks now fixed for securing promotions is 35 per cent in English and 40 per cent on the whole for both the Anglo-Vernacular and High Schools The percentage of 40 per cent on the whole for Anglo-Vernacular classes is considered too high, while the percentage of 35 per cent in English fixed for High School classes is considered too low for the reasons that the standard of ~~the~~ qualification in English required of candidates appearing for the matriculation and the Secondary School Leaving Certificate Examinations is being gradually raised The Committee after much discussion have suggested that the percentage of marks for securing promotion may be fixed at 35 per cent both in English and on the whole in the Anglo-Vernacular classes and 40 per cent both in English and on the whole in the High School classes

5. As regards Rule VI for promotions in Anglo-Vernacular and High School classes, the present rule that "no boy shall be permitted to remain in the same class and the same Anglo-Vernacular or High School who has not obtained promotion, for two years" is regarded as working much much hardship especially in the case of students of Anglo-Vernacular Schools where the children are very young In large places like Bangalore and Mysore where there are more Anglo-Vernacular and High Schools than one the students can easily have a change of school and even then it is very doubtful if they can derive any benefit by such transfers In a place where there is a single Anglo-Vernacular or High School the hardship felt is very great In a few instances well-to-do parents may be able to send the children to schools in outside places for education but as a rule especially at Taluk Headquarters where mostly the children of Taluk officials make up the major portion of the number in the higher classes their education by the operation of the existing rules generally ceases altogether and the boys are forced to lead idle lives At the same time the rules as it stands is a check on the unnecessary congregation of idle boys in one and the same class for long periods The Committee consider in these circumstances that the rule may remain as it is with however the addition of the qualifying words at the beginning of Rule VI -

"Without the special permission of the Inspecting officer'

6 I concur with the views expressed by the Committee and approve of the modifications suggested by them and recommend that Government will be so good as to approve of the same at a very early date so that effect may be given to the proposed modifications from the beginning of the next school year A copy of the Government Notification with the modifications proposed is herewith enclosed for publication in the official Gazette after approval by Government

REPORT of the Committee appointed to consider the question of modifying the rules regarding admissions and promotions in High and Anglo-Vernacular Schools sanctioned in Government Notification No 5942/Edn 164-08-3 dated the 22nd December 1908

--o O o--

The Committee met at 3 P M on Saturday the 23rd instant The following gentlemen were present -

1 Mr M Srinivasa Rau B A Circle Inspector Mysore
2 Mr B Dasappa B A Circle Inspector Bangalore
3 Mr K Ramachandra Rao B A
4 The Rev W Perston B A
5 Mr N Venkatakrishnaiya
6 " V Subramanya Iyer B A
7 " K A Krishnaswamy Iyer B A
8 " C Krishna Rau B A Secretary Education Committee Mysore Economic Conference

The rules contained in Government Notification above referred to were discussed in great detail and the modifications embodied in the copy attached to this report were finally adopted

No material change in the rules relating to admissions was considered necessary beyond extending the period prescribed for admissions to 10 days from the date of the reopening of the school

In regard to rules III and VI for promotions in Anglo-Vernacular Middle and High Schools there was considerable diversity of opinion While some urged that the percentage prescribed in Rule III should be lowered others maintained that low percentages would by their tendency to lower the ideals to be aimed at by both teachers and pupils ultimately prove detrimental to the true interests of the pupils After much discussion the modifications now proposed were accepted by a majority of the members In regard to rule VI some held that no useful purpose would be served by sending away a batch of backward pupils from one school to another

even

even where this could be done It was urged that the difficulties in the case of towns in which there was only one school of a kind were almost insuperable On the other hand it was urged by others that it was undesirable to abrogate a rule that created a wholesome fear among backward pupils and stimulated them to greater exertion during their second year in a class The modification now proposed was acceptable to all and it was received with unmixed satisfaction
